

LALOÚDA

Gerolimenas, Mani

Welcome to Laloúda holiday accommodation, a spacious retreat in the picturesque village of Gerolimenas, located in the heart of the Mani Peninsula. Laloúda combines modern comfort with the authentic charm of Mani, making it the ideal base for exploring the region's rich history, natural wonders, and cultural heritage.

Just a stones throw away from Gerolimenas beach, enjoy the peace and tranquillity of the local village and its natural surroundings, all within walking distance.

Why stay at Lalouda?

Spacious Comfort: Comfortably accommodates up to 14 guests, ideal for families, friends, or group retreats.

Breathtaking Views: Enjoy panoramic vistas of the Aegean Sea, Katagounas, and Taygetos Mountains from our scenic balcony.

Prime Location: Nestled in Gerolimenas, an iconic Mani village with easy access to the beach and surrounding attractions. Use Lalouda as a base to explore Mani and the wider Peloponnese area.

Year-Round Appeal: From summer adventures to winter olive picking, Lalouda offers something special in every season.

LALOÚDA

What We Offer

Flexible Accommodation: A mix of beds and bedrooms on two floors with some rooms incorporating loft areas, ensuring comfort and privacy for all guests whatever you needs maybe.

Amenities for Relaxation: Rooms with private ensembles available, shared bathroom, a main kitchen and a kitchenette on first level to facilitate for self-catering, and an inviting open-plan design.

Balcony with Stunning Views: Perfect for unwinding after a day of exploration.

Authentic Design: Built with Mani's characteristic stone architecture to immerse you in local culture.

Outdoor dining Area: A large courtyard available at the rear of Laloúda for private alfresco dining or other activities like yoga, with spectacular views of the Katagounas.

Fire place: Keep warm and cosy in winter using our open fireplace located in the spacious living area.

History and beauty

Gerolimenas, meaning "sacred harbour," is a historic port village renowned for its beauty and history.
Yachting Destination: A favoured stop for sailors, offering calm waters & proximity to iconic attractions.
Historic Port: Once a refuge from storms and a vital trading hub before roads were built.
Village Charm: Stroll its cobblestone streets, enjoy tradition local cuisine; & relax by its pebble beach.
Local fishermen: Still used as a base for local fisherman who catch and sell their catch daily to local tavernas in Gerolimenas and its surrounds.

LALOÚDA

Discover the Treasures of the Mani Peninsula

Cultural and Historical Landmarks

Traditional Stone Villages: Visit the well known Vathia, a hilltop village of preserved tower houses as well as the small village of Kita, known for its unique Mani architecture.

Cape Matapan Lighthouse: The southernmost point of mainland Europe, with stunning sea views and maritime history.

Temple of Poseidon: Explore the ruins of this ancient site at Cape Tainaron, near the legendary gateway to the underworld.

Odigitria Monastery: A serene and historic monastery, perfect for quiet reflection and exploration.

LALOÚDA

Holiday Accommodation

Postcard Perfect Coastal Escapes

Mezapos Beach

Swim in crystal-clear waters surrounded by dramatic cliffs.

A sandy beach offering natural beauty, serenity & unforgettable sunsets.

Marmari Beach

Located near the village of Kyparissos, this pebble beach attracts swimmers to its clear calm waters and is known for its cave where swimmers take refuge from the summer sun.

Almyros Beach

Καρτ ποστάλ

Porto Kagio

POST CARD

ADDRESS

Relax in this tranquil bay, a perfect spot for kayaking or dining by the sea. xxx

LALOÚDA

Outdoor Adventures

Walking Trails: Explore the rugged Mani landscape on trails that wind through olive groves and historic sites like the Profitis Ilias hike on Taygetos mountain, the hike to Tigani Castle and many ancient paths in the region that were traditionally used by shepherds and locals before roads were built in the 20th century.

Diving in Gerolimenas: Discover underwater treasures in the Aegean with summer diving facilities, long boards and kayaks available at Mani beach in the summer.

Katagounas Hill: A rewarding hike with panoramic views of the Mani Peninsula beginning only a few steps from Lalouda and can be seen from the rear courtyard.

Diros Caves: a stunning network of underground caverns in Mani, Greece, feature breathtaking stalactites and stalagmites and have been inhabited since Neolithic times, offering visitors a glimpse into both natural beauty and ancient history.

LALOÚDA

Dining and Shopping

Enjoy fine dining or casual traditional meals at waterfront restaurants and tavernas in Gerolimenas with small boutique shops open seasonally for tourists for unique crafts and local products.

A small convenience store is located in Gerolimenas and open all year round. Larger supermarkets and convenience stores, butchery and grocery stores are available in nearby Kitta and Areopoli. An ATM is located in Gerolimenas for convenience.

Services in Gerolimenas and Areopoli

Local Medical Services: A doctor visits Gerolimenas twice weekly. For more comprehensive care, a permanent health centre is located in Areopoli. Areopoli also has a post office and pharmacy.

Transportation

Buses: A regular service runs between Gerolimenas and surrounding villages twice a day, and continues to and from Athens, making it the village and its surrounds easily accessible for travellers.

Nearest Airport: Kalamata International Airport is the closest airport, providing connections to domestic and international destinations.

Car: Hire a car and drive around Mani to fully immerse and experience its beauty and historical sites.

LALOÚDA

Seasonal and Cultural Experiences

Olive Harvest (Fall/Winter): Participate in this age-old tradition and learn about local oil production.

Honey Production (Spring): Witness the creation of honey infused with Mani's wild herbs and flowers.

Local Cuisine: Indulge in fresh seafood, slow-roasted lamb, and handmade pies reflecting Mani's rich culinary traditions. Local cooking classes are also popular.

Art and Creativity: Engage with the vibrant art scene through the Lalouda Arts Residency Program which is mentored by renowned Greek artist Takis Kozokos.

Plan Your Stay at Lalouda Accommodation

Whether you're seeking adventure, relaxation, or cultural immersion, Lalouda Accommodation provides the perfect base to explore the treasures of Gerolimenas, Mesa Mani and the Peloponnese area.

Book Your Stay Today:

Website: www.lalouda.com | Email: laloudamani@gmail.com

Discover the Soul of Mani.

Stay Inspired at Lalouda in Gerolimenas.